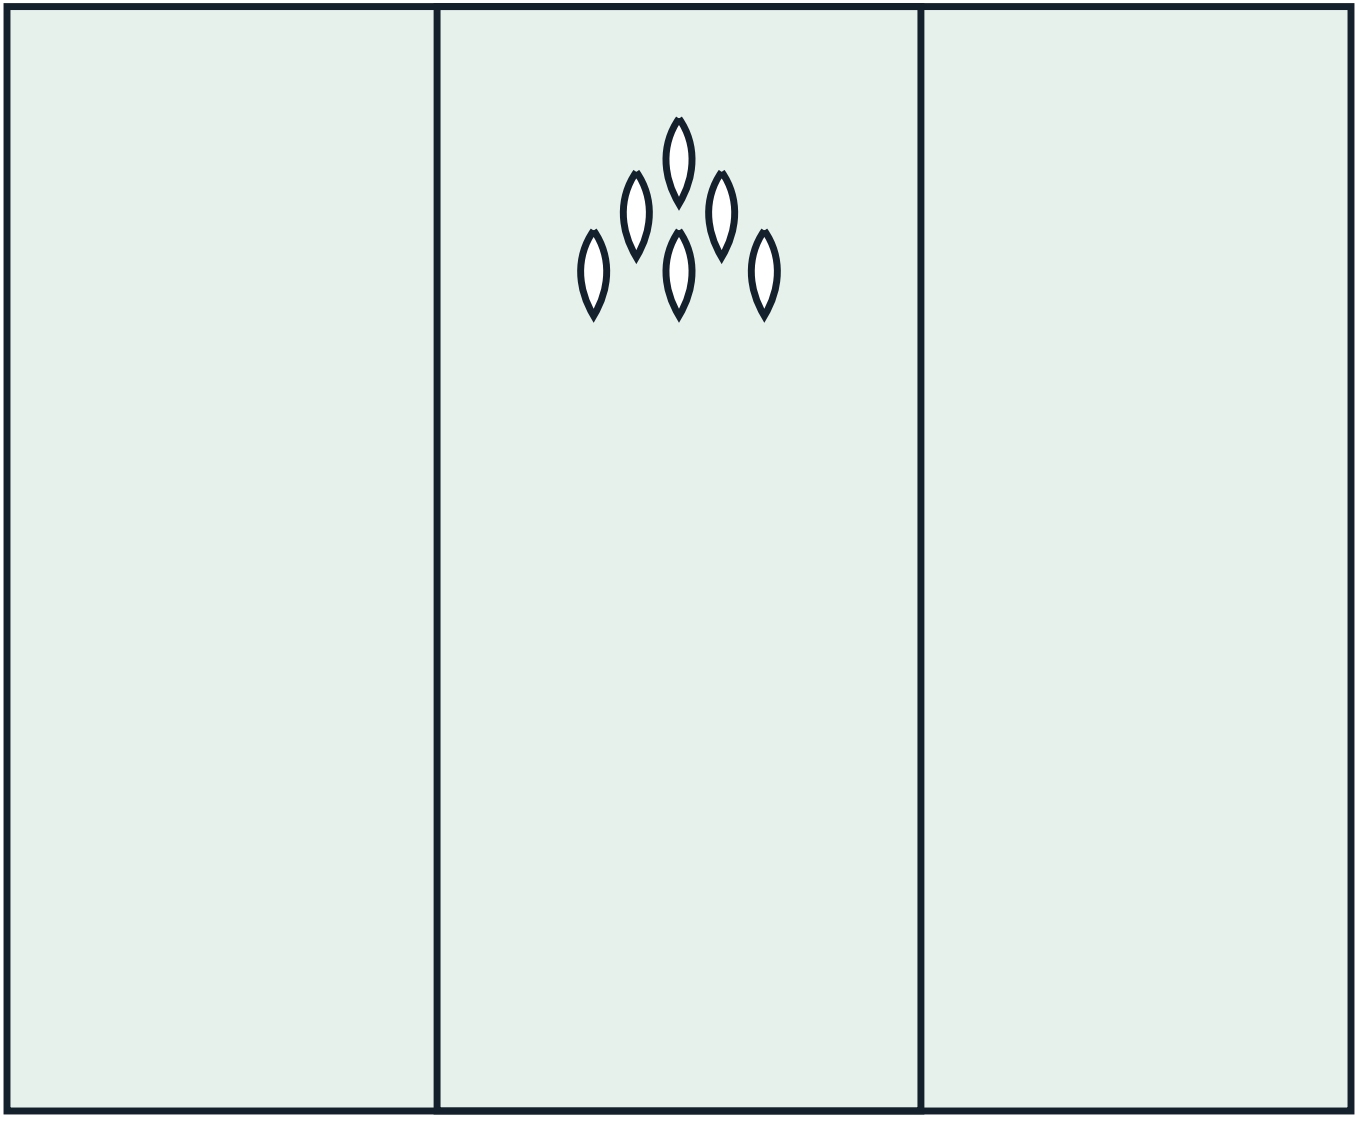
The Playing Area



Good to Know

Ten-pin bowling is governed by World Bowling / the IBF and the USBC under specifications (lane, pins, ball) that are the sport's true law — ball technology rules (such as the USBC's balance-hole prohibition, effective 2020, which outlawed a drilling technique competitive bowlers used to tune reaction) are decided in equipment bulletins rather than rule-change headlines; the traditional string-scoring game itself is unchanged. No major playing-law change is carried for ten-pin bowling.
